Dear Parents & Students

RE: RAIDERS COMMUNICATION LINKS

We would like to take this opportunity to keep all our trainees and parents updated on our forms of communications. Other than the usual announcement made to the class during each lesson, we will upload all related information in our Raiders Web link as well. Please find the link below for your perusal:-

1. <http://raiders-taekwondo.tripod.com>
2. <http://raiders-tkd.blogspot.com>

Our tripod web link is mainly for the photo albums (various Raiders' Events), poomsae links and other archives information. It also consists of our club's achievements and background etc.

Blogspot link is solely for daily announcement where we will keep all our trainees and parents informed of any upcoming events such as local and oversea tournaments, grading, payments, courses, cancellation of classes etc. This is so that trainees and parents can log in to the link to find out any info that they may need if they happen to miss the particular lesson and miss out the daily announcement made.

Kindly set our link as your favourite and start logging on to them for daily updates!

Alternatively, you may contact me at 93870906 for any doubts or clarifications.

Cheers!!!

Koh Poh Ling
